

Dorothy Hodgkin Fellowships 2026 – FAQs

This list is not exhaustive. You may be able to find the answer to your questions in the Scheme Notes for the round. Please check all relevant documents before contacting the Grants Team.

ELIGIBILITY

1. Q: Can I apply for other fellowships at the same time as the Dorothy Hodgkin Fellowship?
A: We understand that you might apply for other opportunities at the same time as the Dorothy Hodgkin Fellowship. Please include any active fellowship applications in the 'Applicant Research Funding' section of the application form.
2. Q: If I accept a permanent position or equivalent fellowship during the Dorothy Hodgkin Fellowships assessment, how is my application affected?
A: You must remain eligible until the time of the application deadline. If you accept a permanent post or equivalent fellowship after the application deadline, this will not preclude you from staying in the competition. If invited to interview, you can include this as part of your updates since submission. If offered a DHF award, please note that you would be required to resign from the position or equivalent fellowship to be able to accept the DHF offer.
3. Q: Do you allow resubmissions?
A: Yes, as long as you continue to meet the eligibility criteria.
4. Q: How will the Royal Society consider the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on my application?
A: The Royal Society appreciates the impact of the coronavirus pandemic is complex and varied. As such, we have a specific question in the application form for applicants to outline the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on their research.

APPLICATION FORM

5. Q: How many years should costs be provided for in the application form?
A: Please provide costs for all 8 years of the fellowship. When completing the budget table in Flexi-Grant®, please ensure to provide values at cost, including inflation if appropriate. For more information, please see the Royal Society Funding Guidance.
6. Q: Do images and references need to be included within the four-page limit of the research proposal or are they in addition to?
A: All images and references have to fit within the four-page limit of the research proposal document.
7. Q: I cannot fit all of my publications in the application due to the word limit. Which ones should I include?
A: Please include your most relevant publications (up to 20). If you are the first author, you can add 'et al' while if you are not the first author, you can include the initials for all contributing. Reviewers will be able to see the full list of your publications through your ORCID, which is part of the application.
8. Q: I have completed all the sections and the application is at 100% but I cannot see a button to submit my application.
A: All participants on the participants tab must appear as 'complete' in green before the submit button appears. If a participant appears in orange as 'incomplete' they need to login and select 'Save & Submit' on the application form page or 'Submit your contribution' on the summary page – otherwise you will not be able to submit your application to your host organisation for approval. Letters of support from the Head of Department and Nominated Referees are compulsory, while the Research Support is optional and can be revoked if no longer needed.

9. Q: What is the Head of Department expected to contribute to the application form?

A: The Head of Department section is made of two parts:

1. Statement of Support (PDF upload) – further guidance is provided within the scheme notes for the round.
2. Commitment of Resources (max 250 words text box) – please provide details of the resources that the host department will commit to the applicant. This section will be included in the award letter if the application is successful.
